

St. Herman of Alaska

Stichera at "Lord, I Have Cried"

TONE 6: "Having set all your hope..."

Ha-ving now as sem - bled, let us glorify the won - drous one, who even while among mor - tals, at-tained hea - ven - ly things_ who by his deeds_ and words did car - ry the light_ of Christ un - to the ends_ of the world_ for the unenlightened peo - ple who were crushed beneath the darkness of i - do - la - try. By his sup - pli - ca - tions may Christ save our souls.

Re joice, — O Va - laam, thou dwel - ling place of God, for thou didst nur - ture the wondrous as - ce - tic of Christ, who, like a lamp upon a lamp - stand, shone forth among the islands of A - la - ska, a new and un - known land, and brought an unbelieving peo - ple to the Or - tho - dox faith. With them let us glo - ri - fy God, Who is won - drous in His saints.

Ha ving but one de - sire, to bring the unbelieving peo - ple to the one God, thou becamest all things to all men: teaching them the sacred Scrip - tures and how to live in ac - cor - dance there - with; train - ing them in han - di - crafts acting as intercessor for them before the au - tho - ri - ties, teach - ing them in every way as though they were chil - dren, that thou mightest lead the peo - ple to God.

Forsake us not al - so who hymn thee.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves, a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with chords and single notes. The treble staff contains chords for the words 'Forsake', 'us', 'not', 'al - so', 'who', 'hymn', and 'thee.'. The bass staff contains single notes for the words 'Forsake', 'us', 'not', 'al - so', 'who', 'hymn', and 'thee.'. The piece ends with a double bar line.
